

6. The contractor is also bound to keep a detailed account showing collections and it shall be open to inspection by the officers of the Taluk and District Boards.

7. The contractor of the market will also be given the right of collecting and utilizing the market sweepings and it will be his duty to keep the premises clean, failing which, a fine of Re. 1 will be levied for each day per diem of default, and should the default continue for more than six days, the contract is liable to be cancelled and resold at his risk.

8. The contractor shall exhibit at the entrance to the market place on market days a notice board setting forth the rates at which fees are levied.

9. No claim for remission on account of the prevalence of plague, cholera and other epidemics, or any other cause, will be entertained.

10. The market is liable to be closed temporarily for the purpose of preventing the spread of epidemics, either among men or cattle if such a course is considered necessary by the President, Taluk Board. No claim for remission consequent on such prohibition can however be entertained.

11. A person bringing things for his own shop, shall not be charged separate fees, one for the load and the other for exposing the things in the shop, but will be liable for only the higher fee.

12. The contractor shall be responsible for the cleanliness of the premises.

13. The shop-keepers and the contractor are bound to obey the orders of the Taluk Board authorities with regard to the allocation of shops.

14. Should the contractor or his servants charge or attempt to charge any fees other than those stated in the schedule below, or should he or his servants fail to fulfil any of the obligations entailing on him by any of the preceding paragraphs, his contract will be liable to be cancelled, his deposit forfeited and the lease resold at his risk.

V. GOPAL RAO,
President,

Kankanhalli Taluk Board.

KODAR DISTRICT

Notice dated 23rd May 1924.

It is notified for the information of the public that the District Board of Kodar have framed the following draft bye-laws governing the levy of toll on all vehicles and animals passing along the District Fund Roads of Kodar District.

Preliminary to submission to Government for sanction of these bye-laws, any person who feels aggrieved by the enforcement of these rules may bring forward, in writing, the objections if any within a period of one month from the date of publication in the Mysore Gazette.

Any objection received thereafter will not be taken notice of.

Bye-laws framed by the Kolar District Board under Section 38 of the Local Board and Village Panchayat Regulation.

1. The District Board of Kolar shall levy tolls on all vehicles and animals passing along the District Fund roads at rates notified in Schedule A, annexed hereunder.

2. No toll shall be levied at the toll bar for the passage of vehicles and animals: (1) belonging to or employed by Government (2) belonging to or employed by Local Board in the District (3) or licensed or registered by the Local Boards during the period for which they have been so registered or licensed (4) (whether owned or hired) used for the passage of troops or for the conveyance of Government stores or of any other Government property or the property of H. H. the Maharaja of Mysore (5) (whether owned or hired) used for the passage of Military or police officers on duty or the conveyance or passage of any property or person in their custody, (6) engaged by the postal department to convey mails (7) belonging to the Hon'ble the British Resident in Mysore, (8) belonging to Government servants travelling on duty who are certified by their respective immediate superior officer as being not entitled to travelling allowances.

3. No more than one payment of toll shall be demanded at any toll bar, gate or station in respect of any vehicle or animal in any one period of twenty-four hours counted from sunrise to sunrise; provided that when toll has been paid at any toll bar, gate or station in respect of any vehicle or animal, not laden or ridden, the difference between such toll and the toll payable in respect of such vehicle or animal shall be payable if such vehicle or animal passes through such toll bar, gate or station laden or ridden within such period.

4. The District Board shall ordinarily lease out from year to year the right to collect tolls, or may place the collection of such tolls under the management of such persons as may appear to it proper and may frame rules for the guidance of toll collectors.

5. The District Board shall publish a notice in case of lease every year in the month of April, intimating the day, hour and the place of which sales of tolls for the ensuing official year will be conducted. The date of sale should not be later than the fifteenth of May. The sale shall be conducted under the orders of the President in such manner as he may direct and it shall be confirmed at a meeting of the District Board.

6. The notice of sale may, besides mentioning the above provisions of rules provide for the following particulars.—

(1) Deposit of earnest money by intending bidders.

(2) Deposit of khists for not less than two months on the conclusion of the sale by the successful bidder.

(3) Resale on default of deposit mentioned in 2 supra at the risk of the previous purchaser, forfeiture of earnest money and the reimbursement of the loss, if any, sustained by the District Board by such resale, and the disposal of surplus, if any, realised in consequence of such resale.

(4) Acceptance or non-acceptance of applications for abatement, refund or remission of rent of khists on account of loss sustained by the purchaser due to prevalence of epidemics or any other cause.

(5) Any other particular or particulars which the District Board or the President thinks is or are necessary to be brought to the notice of intending bidders.

(7) As soon as the sale is confirmed, the lessee shall execute an agreement in favour of the President of the District Board agreeing to abide by the rules and the bye-laws in force for the time being relating to the levy of tolls and the conditions of the notice of sale. On default the right shall again be put up for auction at the risk of lessee. He shall forfeit the deposit he had made. He shall also be liable to reimburse the District Board in case of loss at the subsequent sale but shall not be entitled to any excess that may ensue.

(8) The agreement may also provide for the following:—

(1) Payment of khists in twelve equal monthly instalments due on or before the 10th of every month.

(2) Payment of penal interest at 9 per cent on default of payment on due date.

(3) Maintenance of true and correct accounts of receipts and expenditure and for their inspection by the President or other authorised officer of the District Board.

(4) Submission of such accounts monthly to the office and the date within which they have to be submitted.

(5) Issue of receipt books from the District Board Office.

(6) Notification to the District Board office for recording the names and particulars of servants employed by the lessees for the collection of tolls at each toll-gate or station.

(7) Exhibition of schedule of rates of toll in English and Kannada at each toll bar for the information of the public.

(8) Recognition or non-recognition of transfers of the lease by sale or gift or otherwise.

(9) Cancellation of the lease for infringement of any provision of the Local Board Regulation in respect of the levy of tolls, or of these rules, or of the conditions of the notice of sale or of the agreement of lease.

(10) Any other condition or conditions not inconsistent with the Local Board Regulation and the rules framed thereunder in respect of the levy of tolls which the Board or the President may think necessary to provide.

9. The provision of penal interest or other penalties in the agreement of lease shall not absolve the lessee from other legal proceedings against him for infringement of the provisions of the Local Board Regulation, rules thereunder, conditions of notice of sale or of the agreement of lease.

10. When payment of any toll is made, a receipt shall be granted by the person to whom the payment is made in such form the District Board may from time to time prescribe.

11. Any person who is not duly appointed as a toll collector, who shall levy or demand any toll on any public road or who when duly appointed as such shall demand more than the rates specified in the schedule shall be liable on conviction before a magistrate, to a fine not exceeding Rs. 200 or to simple or rigorous imprisonment not exceeding six months.

12. Any person who fraudulently or forcibly passes any toll without paying the proper toll or who obstructs the toll collector in the discharge of his duties shall be liable on conviction before a magistrate to simple or rigorous imprisonment for any term not exceeding three months or to a fine not exceeding Rs. 50.

13. In all cases of resistance to the lawful authority of the toll collectors appointed under these rules, all police officers shall assist the toll collectors, when required and for that purpose shall have the same power which they have in the execution of their ordinary police duties.
